

Pilot Area: Pio, Model Community, Porac, Pampanga

Project: Rise Against Poverty and Malnutrition: Feeding Program

Class Code: 208 CWTS1

Facilitator: Mr. Michael Adrian Valdez

Objectives	Activities/ Task	Time Frame	Responsible Person	Resource Requirements		Expected Output
				Materials	Human
To provide nutritious meals for individuals, specifically those vulnerable children to improve their health, nutritional status, and reduce the risk of nutrient deficiency.	Feeding Programs	September 27,2024	NSTP facilitator, NSTP Class code 208	Recyclable plates, spoon and fork, paper cups, Ready to eat meals, Supplements and vitamins.	HAU NSTP	It will enhance the overall nutrition, reducing health risk, and foster community engagement.
To educate and empower parents with knowledge and awareness of how to address malnutrition.	Seminar for parents	October 27, 2024	NSTP facilitator, NSTP Class code 208	Flyers, chairs, table, mic and speaker, presentation.	HAU NSTP	Parents will gain insights related to malnutrition.
To supply essential foods and materials for the families who cannot provide enough needs.	Relief Goods	November 27, 2024	NSTP facilitator, NSTP Class code 208, Parents	Hygiene kits, Canned goods, Clothing, Non-perishable foods, vitamins, drinks.	HAU NSTP	The community can use these essentials for their everyday lives.
To enhance the children's physical and mental cognitive by engaging physical activities for them to be aware about health.	Interactive physical activities related to Health circumstances	December 27, 2024	NSTP facilitator, NSTP Class code 208	Pen, paper, crayons, chair and table, art kits, and rewards.	HAU NSTP	This will improve the children's physical health and also mental health by enjoying themselves by taking in part of the activities
To monitor and prevent malnutrition and to ensure their well-being.	Monthly free health check-ups	January 27,202	NSTP facilitator, NSTP Class code 208, Medical Nurses	Medical kits, BMI Chart, Weighting scale, Medical Supplies.	HAU NSTP, Municipal Staffs.	It will monitor the health of each individual, ensuring safety to the community, allowing timely support.